Kaufman Legal Group Named “Top Boutique” Today by Daily Journal

LOS ANGELES – October 24, 2017 – Kaufman Legal Group, which specializes in government and politics, has been named a top boutique law firm in today’s annual special Top Boutiques edition of the Daily Journal, California’s preeminent legal journal.

The firm’s founder, Stephen J. Kaufman, is an expert in campaign finance and election law, and was a recount attorney for the Gore-Lieberman campaign in Florida after the 2000 presidential election. The firm’s attorneys have held leadership positions at the state Fair Political Practices Commission and Federal Election Commission, served in local government, and advised private sector clients for years.

“It’s a powerful niche market for an exclusive group of firms that specialize in political law representing many of the top politicians, unions and corporations in California,” the Daily Journal wrote in a profile of the firm in March 2017. “Founded in 1996, Kaufman’s firm boasts a client list that includes U.S. Sen. Kamala Harris, former U.S. Sen. Barbara Boxer, Los Angeles Mayor Eric Garcetti and California Secretary of State Alex Padilla.”

The firm, with offices in Los Angeles and Sacramento, represents elected officials, candidates, PACs, labor unions, corporations, non-profit organizations, ballot measure campaigns, political parties, major donors, lobbying firms and government agencies on a wide variety of campaign finance, election and governmental ethics matters.

Stephen Kaufman was also recently named to the Los Angeles Business Journal’s “Los Angeles 500” list of the most influential people in Los Angeles, for the second straight year. He is also a former President of the California Political Attorneys Association, and a past recipient of the California State Bar’s Wiley W. Manuel Award for his commitment to pro bono legal services.
